

Paris summit mobilizes finance, vaccines for African 'New Deal'

World leaders gathered in Paris on Monday to announce a $300-billion 'New Deal' for Africa, aimed at mobilizing finance and vaccines to help the continent recover from the economic and health impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Asian markets hit by volatility, oil down on Iran nuclear reports

Focus returns to inflationary impact of economic activity burst

Asian markets were hit by volatility on Monday as investors reacted to reports that Iran has resumed nuclear enrichment activities. Oil prices fell, and the focus shifted back to the inflationary impact of the economic activity burst.

New York state mounts criminal probe into Trump Organization finances

New York state prosecutors have announced a criminal probe into the finances of the Trump Organization, focusing on potential tax evasion and other financial irregularities.

Breathe easy

Patients breathe easier as COVID-19 cases decline in New York state.

Glow in the dark

A person in a dark environment, possibly a laboratory or museum, with some glowing elements.

Germany opens antitrust probe into Amazon with tougher law

Germany has opened an antitrust probe into Amazon, citing the company's alleged dominance in the e-commerce market and its use of a tougher law to investigate its practices.

Bitcoin drops below $39,000 after China's warning

Price fluctuations 'seriously violate people's asset safety', Associations

Bitcoin's price fell below $39,000 on Monday following a warning from Chinese authorities that price fluctuations 'seriously violate people's asset safety'.

Taiwan plans more water curbs for chip hubs

Taiwan's government is planning to implement more water curbs for its semiconductor chip hubs to conserve water resources.

Beauty business

The beauty business is showing signs of recovery as consumers return to shopping for cosmetics and skincare products.

Trade volume shows China values ties: Aussie PM

Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said trade volume shows that China values its ties with Australia, despite ongoing trade tensions.

Domestic grain

Domestic grain production is expected to increase this year.

Toyota to halt 2 plants amid chip crunch, 20,000 vehicles affected

Toyota announced it will halt production at two plants due to a severe chip shortage, affecting 20,000 vehicles.

INVITATION FOR BIDS (IFB) Construction of Jakarta Mass Rapid Transit Project (Phase 2) (1)

